Same Thing Here

They took a little gravel, And took a little tar, With various ingredients Imported from afar; They hammered it and rolled it, And when they went away They said they had a pavement To last for many a day.

They came with picks and smote it To lay a water main, And then they called the workmen To put it back again. To lay a railway cable They took it up once more And then they put it back again Just where it was before.

They took it up for conduits To run the telephone, And then they put it back again As hard as any stone. They took it up for wires To feed the electric light, And then they put it back again Which was no more than right.

Oh, the pavement full of furrows, There are patches everywhere; You'd like to ride upon it, But it's seldom that you dare; It's a very handsome pavement, A credit to the town, They're always digging of it up Or putting it of down.

Consumption Takes 350 People Daily

in the United States and the deadly germs claim more victims in cities than in rural districts, due no doubt to the increased number of indoor workers in confining quarters and their lack of sunshine.

Tubercular germs always attack when the system is weakened from colds or sickness, overwork, overstrain, confining duties or any drain which has reduced the resistive forces of the body. But nature always provides a corrector and the best physicians emphasize that during changing climate our blood should be kept rich and pure and active by taking Scott's Emulsion after meals; the cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion warms the body by enriching the blood—it peculiarly strengthens the lungs and upbuilds the resistive forces of the body to avoid colds and prevent consumption.

If you work indoors, tire easily, feel languid or nervous, Scott's Emulsion is the most strengthening food-medicine known; it builds energy and strength and is totally free from alcohol or any stupefying drug—every druggist has it. 15-106 Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.

Fort Shafter Notes

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]

FORT SHAFTER, March 17.—Captain Watkins, in charge of construction, finished up two more company barracks in the cantonment, Friday and notified the commanding officer that the buildings were ready for occupancy and companies I and K began their move at once. On the day before the two companies of the 2d battalion that had been left in the camp back of the officers' line awaiting an opportunity to get into their own permanent quarters were required to move on an hour's notice into the barracks in which E and F had just spread themselves out and settled down to housekeeping. This hurry up change and consequent doubling-up was caused by the surgeon's recommendation that the recruits be segregated for a period on account of their having been exposed to measles and mumps on the transport which brought the detachment to Oahu.

This joint occupation of barracks will necessarily continue until Captain Watkins and his company of carpenters can finish the two remaining sets of barracks. For nearly 15 months the various companies have been on tenthooks as regards location and quarters.

Major H. O. Williams has been placed in general charge and Lieuts. F. P. Jackson, V. W. Bolter and H. H. Preston have been placed on special duty with the recruit detachment as in charge of their instruction. For the present and during the continuance of the quarantine the detachment will be administered by three companies as a company under the lieutenants named. To assist the above-named officers as instructors the following named non-commissioned officers are also placed on a special duty status: Company A, Serat. John Marquina, Corps. Earl P. Parker and Lester F. Turley; Company B, Serat. John Blake and Corps. Harry W. Bosworth and Frank Bradley; Company C, Corps. Orne E. Dixon, William F. McCue and Otto C. Buege; Company D, Q.M. Serat. Thomas Clarkson and Corps. George F. Smith, Peter Rasmussen and Thomas F. Strachan; Company E, Serat. John Morris and Corps. Chester E. Barth and Edwin S. Roebuck; Company F, Serat. Herbert W. Ashenfelter and Corps. Claude M. Wagner and Clarence E. Teel; Company G, Serat. Jacob Snyder and Corps. John B. Wenner and Ira McDougle; Company H, Serat. Oscar Pfeiffer, Serat. Flag Drewry and Corp. Paul Lehm; Company I, Serat. Frank Sullivan and Corps. Robert C. Gamble and William J. Ryan; Company K, Serat. Lewis Abbott and Corps. Garfield P. Hurst and William H. Button; Company L, Serat. Arthur J. DeCourcy and Corps. Charles R. Seltz and Robert Leston; Company M, Serat. Fred H. Young and Corps. Walter East and Royal H. Jones. The mess arrangements for the 343 men will be in the hands as cooks of Privates John W. Petersen, Company D; Karl Butler, Company F; Frank Kracke, Company E, and Joseph Pokrzywinski.

Owing to the fact that the garrison is now separated by a deep and wide ravine and therefore forms in effect two distinct posts as regards duty in connection with service calls and duty thereunder, the post commander has ordered a change in the central method of sounding calls, receiving reports at roll calls and similar matters formerly in force. The officer of the day hereafter will exercise but a general supervision over the formation at roll calls and the reports as to absentees instead of being made to the officer of the day will be made to the adjutant by the officers superintending the calls in each battalion on or before officers' call each morning. The field musicians will be assembled in two groups, one in the main post at the flagstaff and the other in the cantonment and will sound the retreat and reveille as nearly as is possible in unison, although the practical result of this arrangement will be to make the retreat and reveille formations two separate and distinct affairs. The whole plan approximates the subpost plan that is in operation at many of the larger posts in the army where a mixed command of large units has station and when Shafter shall receive the increase in strength of garrison that it is understood is now contemplated it will be easy to further expand the scheme and have sub-post administration without confusion or delay.

The ladies of the garrison will undertake to keep the recruit detention camp supplied with reading matter during the continuance of the period of confinement to the limits of the camp. These young men are making what appears no doubt to them a mighty doleful entry into active service since they are absolutely cut off from amusement or diversion in any form. They are without amusement halls, pool tables or library and may not even go for a walk about the surrounding country and that is and will be sorely missed. There is no hardship involved in their detention but youngster-like they will be hard put to keep themselves entertained in their leisure hours and particularly on days when drills are not scheduled or are interfered with by inclement weather.

The garrison has received with much satisfaction the news that the county authorities are actually going to place the stretch of county road that passes through the post in a passable condition. The construction gang is now working on the Moanala Park section near the junction of the Puuloa road and will be moved at once to this part of the highway and the rattlings and bumpings that have tried all classes of vehicles and tempers most sorely for the last year will be, it is hoped, a thing of the past.

Measles having appeared in the family of Lieut. Laurence O. Mathews, 2d Infantry, at the post, the command-

JUNIOR SENIOR PLAY AT OAHU PROMISES BIG

Under the direction of Mrs. Isaac Cox the junior-senior play, "All of a Sudden Peggy," which is being given Friday night in Charles R. Bishop hall, is rapidly approaching perfection. The characters of cast have their parts well in hand and it only remains for them to put on those final touches before Friday night which will make the play one of the best ever given by the school.

The net proceeds of this play will go to the Oahu, the school paper, which has suffered financially during the past year. Tickets are in the hands of various students of the preparatory and of the college and already a large number of them have been sold.

One of the biggest features of the night will be Ernest Heene's stringed orchestra which will play before curtain and between acts. The leader has rounded up the singing talent of the school in addition to the players of the guitar, violin, mandolin, ukulele and piano for this event.

Miss Elsie Wichman, who will take the principal part, Peggy, has done some excellent work at the recent rehearsals. She has her part almost down to perfection, and Clouson Emory, taking the man's leading part, is doing well. Miss Louise Churchill, as Mrs. Crakenhorpe, is one of the best on the cast, while Bernard Damon, as Sir Anthony Crakenhorpe, the son of the former, keeps those at the rehearsals continually laughing.

Malcolm Tuttle, as "Archie," an old and dignified Englishman, holds down his part of the performance like an experienced actor, while Miss Dorothy Hooks, taking the part of Millicent, an athletic girl, also does well. When Miss Thelma Murphy comes onto the stage and reels off a bit of her Irish brogue, as Mrs. O'Mara, the audience will surely be amused.

The Dramatic Club, an organization which consists of the talented "actors" of the school, are planning to give as their annual play, "Loves Labor Lost." Try-out will be held, under the supervision of Miss Ruth Soper, president of the club, for the parts of the production. This play will be given in the last month of the school year.

WORK WANTED

"Has anybody in Honolulu an odd job or two which a man with a family in destitute circumstances could undertake to assist him financially? If so, ring up 2253, or The Associated Charities, and give us a chance to place one of our needy men in the position, even if it is only a day's work. At a moment's notice we can send each day place in the neighborhood of from 25 to 30 men, while we have on our files many more who are in need of work, and with whom we are in touch."

W. SPENCER BOWEN, Manager of the Associated Charities.

ing officer has ordered that the family be and remain in quarantine until all danger of the spread of the disease shall have passed. It is not thought that the disease was brought into the garrison by the recently arrived detachment of recruits since the length of time elapsed since the new men arrived has been too brief for the illness to have developed in the children of the family.

Lieut. William C. Rose, 2d Infantry, who returned from leave by the last transport is temporarily the house guest of Captain and Mrs. Charles Lincoln and until he can arrange his quarters and mess arrangements.

Lieut. Rose reports as one of the most interesting experiences of his leave of absence the much discussed interview of Judge Arthur A. Wilder and the Scotch comedian Harry Lauder, that took place at the Cort theater in San Francisco.

Mrs. Camp, the mother of Lieut. Thomas J. Camp, 2d Infantry, who was knocked down by a carriage at the corner of Fort and King streets on Saturday last through the careless acts of the driver of the vehicle has about recovered from the effects of the severe fall and general shaking up experienced.

Captain and Mrs. Robert McCleave of the 2d and Lieutenant McCleave of the 25th Infantry welcomed their mother, Mrs. McCleave, who arrived on the Thomas Wednesday evening and will make her permanent home with her younger son, Lieutenant McCleave at Schofield Barracks.

Private Alfred Henry, regimental detachment (Company H) 2d Infantry, has been transferred to Company I of the regiment, and on the recommendation of his company commander has been appointed a corporal in that company, vice Brandt, promoted.

Captain and Mrs. George H. Jamerson of the 2d Infantry are enjoying an extended visit from Mrs. Jamerson's brother, Mr. Tower of Detroit, who arrived in the garrison last week and now expects to remain here for two weeks more.

Former Lieutenant governor, Louis A. Frothingham, Charles F. Weed and Charles P. Jopp, were appointed trustees for the Henry Siegel Co., of Boston.
